Dear UBC:

As a leading law firm in the entertainment business, we focus on providing our staff the best benefits possible, especially in these moments of rising healthcare costs. We have been your clients for quite some time now, and are very pleased with the level of service as well as expertise that your firm provides us.

Thanks to your consultant's strategies, we were able to save $71,460 this year, keep the same carrier and still provide our attorneys and staff an excellent level of benefits. We also want to thank you for a very detailed and well organized employee education seminar that your firm offered to our attorneys and staff.

Your firm is pretty impressive in every aspect of this business. I am also very pleased with how informed and dedicated your brokers are. I will be sure to recommend your services without hesitation to all my business associates and friends.

Very truly yours,

Sarah Decker
Office Administrator
